

Home Equity Conversion Mortgage (HECM)

SYNOPSIS

The US Department of Housing and Urban Development, (HUD), Office of the Chief Procurement Officer, (OCPO) on behalf of the Office of Housing/Office of Finance and Budget (DAS/OFAB) intends to solicit proposals for a HECM Service Provider (SP). The SP will provide a cost-effective web-based service that can support the Home Equity Conversion Mortgage (HECM) program, commonly known as the FHA reverse mortgage program. The applicable NAICS code is 519190.

This procurement is a full and open competition and will be conducted in accordance with Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR) Part 15 procedures.

HUD anticipates awarding one firm-fixed priced contract with one 12-month base and four 12-month options. It is anticipated that the Request for Proposal, (RFP) will be available electronically on or after June 6, 2009. The forthcoming RFP R-OPC-23426 will be accessed through the Federal Business Opportunities (FBO) website, (URL: <http://www.fedbizopps.gov>). HUD does not intend to release hard copies of the RFP. Please note that HUD will consider proposals submitted by any responsible offeror. Responses to the RFP will be due on or about July 7, 2009. Interested offerors who download the solicitation will not automatically receive notification of amendments (if any); therefore you are advised to check the FBO website frequently to see if HUD has issued any amendments to the solicitation. Any amendments (if issued), will be automatically linked to the solicitation and available for downloading from the FBO site.

This notice does not commit the government to award a contract. HUD reserves the right to cancel the requirement at any time prior to contract award. Please direct all inquiries via email to Jennifer.j.awkard@hud.gov. No facsimile transmission will be accepted.
